Dear Mr. Gladieux:

I am delighted to get the good news that Richard Holmes has been selected to receive one of the ten 1965 Career Service Awards of the National Civil Service League. The members of this Agency are very proud to have another of our officers selected for this honor.

The President has officially announced my plans for leaving active federal service and his selection of Vice Admiral William J. Raborn, Jr. to serve as Director of Central Intelligence. Much as I would like to attend the Awards Dinner and participate in the presentation ceremonies, I think it would be more appropriate to extend your invitation to Admiral Raborn and I have taken the liberty of doing so.

Mr. Paul Chretien, a Special Assistant to the Director, and Mr. Bennett D. Echols, Director of Personnel will contact Mr. Courtier in reference to the publicity and other arrangements for the dinner.

/s/ Bennett D. Echols

Sincerely,

Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

It is a pleasure to advise you that Mr. Richard McGarrah Helms, Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has been selected by the National Civil Service League to receive its 1965 Career Service Award. We will wait a few days before formally notifying Mr. Helms in the event you would like personally to inform him of this award for which you originally nominated him.

Mr. Helms will be honored at a banquet to be held on the evening of May 19, 1965, at the Sheraton-Park Hotel. It is earnestly hoped that you will join officers of the League in bestowing this coveted award. By long tradition, Cabinet level officers have personally presented their candidates for this honor. I, therefore, cordially invite you on behalf of the Board of Directors to join us as a head table guest for this purpose. Your presence will represent not only a personal tribute to Mr. Helms but will also demonstrate your general support of standards of excellence in the public service.

Since the Career Service Award is designed to enhance the prestige of the public service by recognizing outstanding performance, it is most important that this event continue to be strongly supported, broadly attended and widely publicized. Our goals are to honor the Awardee, to make our citizens more acutely aware of the quality of government service, and to encourage the ablest people in our society to develop careers in government. We need and respectfully request your assistance in this effort.
